HOUSING CO-OPERATIVE INSURANCE

Arranging appropriate insurance for your housing co-operative is vital if you are to avoid costly pay-outs. Members could be held responsible for allegations of poor maintenance standards, possible issues with contractors, accidents and injuries to the public or theft of confidential information.

We offer all our clients:

- Professional advice from an experienced adviser
- A full review of your insurance and analysis of the market on your behalf
- Competitive premiums
- A full summary of your insurance cover and our recommendations

Whether your housing co-operative manages thousands of properties or just a handful of homes, call us on 01223 949006 to find out more.

"One Broker saved us over £1600 whilst adding more liability cover than we had with our previous insurer; as well as sorting out the insurance for our annual street party."

"Phil has been really helpful answering any ongoing questions in a clear, concise and friendly manner."
